

Measurement sheet

X-ray protective clothing

Made to measure LytaType personal x-ray protective clothing

This data sheet should be completed after taking precise measurements where indicated. Please also consider the following points: -

- > All measurements should be specified.
- > Width measurements should be accurate and snug but not tight or restrictive.
- > Length measurements for a coat/apron are taken from the middle of the shoulder.

Please complete the information below accurately

Return to:- kenex@kenex.co.uk

Customer name
Company name
Email address

Model number
Model description
Lead equivalent in mm	Front
	Back
Colour (+ code)
Optional extras	Pocket (Yes/No)
	Embroidery (Yes/No)
	Other

Ref	Measurement description	Measurement in cm
B	Apron/coat length: distance from the middle of the shoulder to the bottom edge of the apron/coat.
	B.1 Waist level: distance from the middle of the shoulder to the waist. Ladies: measured to the narrowest part of the waist. Gents: measured to a point slightly below the navel.
	B.2 Length of skirt or kilt: distance from the waist to the lower edge of the garment.
A	Bust/chest: measure around the fullest part of the chest and over the garment that will be worn under the item being ordered.
E	Shoulder width: distance across the back from the outer edges of the left to right humeral articulation.
C	Waist: measurements around should be comfortable; snug not tight. Ladies: measured at the narrowest part of the waist. Gents: measured at a position slightly below the navel.
D	Hips: measure around the fullest point of the hips and buttocks with the tape parallel to the floor.	